SOURCE

The landing field at the ZWICKAU (N 51/K 34) airfield was serviceable after the bomb craters had been filled and leveled. The field is not occupied by a military unit. According to local residents, Soviet trainers have landed at the field three times since 1 July 1949. The field has been repeatedly inspected by Soviet officers.

25X1A [REDACTED] Comment: The condition and occupation of the ZWICKAU airfield has not changed since 23 May 1949. The filling of bomb craters on the runway was previously reported.

This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
